amy butler ltd sewing patterns retailer information form

Hello and thank you for contacting Amy's Studio. We're delighted that you would like to offer Amy's paper patterns in your store. You must be a valid retailer (have an established shop or web store) to sell Amy's sewing patterns. If you are starting a new business, please contact us once your store is established. Before we process your order, we need to find out a little bit about your business.

- Tell us a little bit about your business. Who is your target customer, and what is your business philosophy?
- Do you have a store or an online shop/website?
- What are your web address, email and mailing address?
- Do you stock Amy's fabrics or any other products?
- Please fax a copy of your retail business employer identification number for your records

Please visit Amy's website amybutlerdesign.com for wholesale information (USA & international). Amy sells to valid retailers who have established stores & websites. Please understand that in order to support retailers who carry our products, we need to research new retail inquiries. Thanks for your patience! Once we receive the information requested above, we can setup your wholesale retailer account. Thanks so much!
